

WHY EVEN BOTHER WITH THE GOAL OF OPENING A NEW PATH OF SINGLE-HEARTED SALVATION?

To lead a free and unlimited, joyous life
To be free of illness, trouble and death

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO OPEN A NEW PATH OF SINGLE-HEARTED SALVATION?

Through a step by step process:
It may be immediate or in a single day
It may take years or an entire lifetime
The pace is determined by one's sincerity

HOW IS THE GOAL OF SINGLE-HEARTED SALVATION REALIZED?

The goal is realized by returning the mind to its original pristine condition
This return is called Returning to the Origin or Single-Hearted Salvation

HOW CAN MY MIND BE RETURNED TO ITS ORIGINAL PRISTINE CONDITION?

Any mind, even my mind, can be returned to its original pristine condition by completely calming the self-centered imagination.

HOW IS THE SELF-CENTERED IMAGINATION TO BE COMPLETELY CALMED?

The first step is the identification of the self-centered imagination

- Once identified, the self-centered imagination can be gradually calmed and settled by: Working Tirelessly to save others, in ways appropriate for their time, place and level of spiritual maturity.
- Watching one's self-centered imagination closely and following it back to its origin within one's own mind.
- Sweeping the self-centered imagination away through repetitive exercises that bring it to a standstill.
- Attaching it to an object or a concept that can be held firmly in the mind's eye.
- Pondering, in all matters, the truth that the whole universe is the body of God or a single being.
- Pondering, in all matters, the truth that human beings are things borrowed.
